*Supporting oral healthcare for underserved populations
“Let’s smile together”*

Dear Supporters of Sajen.org, Inc:

Concluding 2021, we would like to update you on our accomplishments of the past year and 2022 upcoming events.

Accomplishments:

During the year 2021, Sajen.org continued with its COVID-19 Initiative. The organization donated over 5,000 COVID-19 care kits includes face masks and hand sanitizers to the local community of New Bedford, Massachusetts and internationally, to the community of Siliguri, India.

Sajen.org donated over 1,500 dental supplies, resources, and educational materials locally to support the basic needs of priority populations.

Sajen.org published a bilingual children’s book: Kids’ Teeth: A Teacher’s Guide: Healthy Smiles Start at School in English and Nepali. Available on Amazon.com.

Sajen.org created and published multiple bilingual videos related to oral health. Available on Youtube.com.

Sajen.org is continuously working with partners locally and internationally to provide awareness and reduce oral health inequality.

The second phase of construction to build a community health center in West Bengal, India is on hold due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Resumption will happen accordingly, once the pandemic is under control.

Upcoming events:

Fundraising campaigns when it is safe to do.

Attending meetings: PACE Head Start program on Health Services Advisory.

Bilingual Children book: Kids’ Teeth: A Teacher’s guide: A healthy smiles start at school in English and Spanish.

Presentations: in person and remotely.

We would like to thank every individual and organization who welcomed us, believed in our mission, and worked with us to better our community, including the PACE food pantry and HeadStart programs in New Bedford, Massachusetts, and Hope Wellness Retreat in Siliguri, India.

Also, we would like to thank our supporters for their generous tax-deductible donations to help achieve our mission to eliminate health inequality. Your donations do make a difference.

Please take care of yourself and your community.
